Article IV Chapter Membership

Section 1 General Membership Provisions

Membership in the Chapter requires membership in PMI®. The Chapter shall not accept as members any individuals who have not been accepted as PMI® members. Membership in this organization is voluntary and shall be open to any eligible person interested in furthering the purposes of the organization. Membership shall be open to all eligible persons without regard to race, creed, color, age, sex, marital status, national origin, religion, or physical or mental disability.

- A. Members shall be governed by and abide by the PMI Bylaws and by the bylaws of the Chapter and all policies, procedures, rules, and directives lawfully made thereunder, including but not limited to the PMI Code of Conduct.
- B. All members shall pay the required PMI and Chapter membership dues to PMI and if a member resigns, or their membership is revoked for just cause, membership dues shall not be refunded by PMI or the Chapter.
- C. Membership in the Chapter shall terminate upon the member's resignation, failure to pay dues or expulsion from membership for just cause.
- D. Members who fail to pay the required dues when due shall be delinquent for a period of one (1) month and their names removed from the official membership list of the Chapter. A delinquent member may be reinstated by payment in full of all unpaid dues for PMI and the Chapter to PMI within such one-month delinquent period.
- E. Upon termination of membership in the Chapter, the member shall forfeit all rights and privileges of membership.
- F. Any member may submit a written resignation to the Secretary of the Chapter, or other duly designated representative. Such a resignation shall become effective upon receipt, consistent with applicable policies, except that a resignation may not prevent the Institute from completing any ethics, disciplinary, or similar proceeding.

- G. Every member in good standing shall have one vote in the meetings of the Chapter. All office bearers of the Chapter shall have to be members in good standing for holding office.

Section 2 Classes and Categories of Members

The Chapter shall not create its own membership categories. PMI Chapter membership categories shall be consistent with PMI membership categories.

Article V Chapter Board of Directors

Section 1

The Chapter shall be governed by a Board of Directors (Board). The Board shall be responsible for carrying out the purposes and objectives of the non-profit corporation (or equivalent).

Section 2

The Board shall consist of up to 8 Officers or Directors (excluding the CEO) elected by the membership, or appointed by the Board under Article V, Section 15. The minimum Board roles are as follows:

- President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- Director at Large (1)
- Director at Large (2)

The Chief Executive Officer (see Article V, Section 8) shall also be a member of the Board but will not be subject to election and will not have voting rights. Only elected Officers and Directors shall have voting rights.

Section 3

Terms of office for the Directors shall be two (2) years and each Director can seek re-election. Directors and Officers must not serve for more than three (3) consecutive terms in any Board role, after which they must step down for a minimum of one (1) year before being eligible for re-election or appointment under Article V, Section 15. There will also be a handover period of two (2) months as required between incoming and outgoing Directors and Officers.

Section 4

The President shall be the Chairman of the Board. The President shall perform such duties as are customary for presiding officers, including making all required appointments with the approval of the Board. The President shall also serve as a member ex-officio with the right to participate and vote on all Management Committees except the Nominating Committee.

In the event the role is vacant it will be fulfilled by any Board member nominated by the Board.

Section 5

There is no dedicated Vice President role. A Director at Large shall be nominated by the Board to act as Vice President, at its' first meeting following the Annual General Meeting. This Director shall assume the responsibility of President if that office becomes vacant during the elected term of the President and shall continue until another President is duly elected.

Section 6

The Secretary shall keep the records of all business meetings of the Chapter and meetings of the Board. The Secretary will also serve as the Public Officer for the Chapter when elected.

Section 7

The Treasurer shall oversee the management of funds for duly authorized purposes of the Chapter.

Section 8

The Chief Executive Officer of the Chapter is appointed by the Board, for a term of up to two (2) years and reports to the Chapter Board. The Board delegates responsibility for management and day-to-day Chapter operations to the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with the Chapter's Board approved annual business plans and the direction and policies established by the Board. The Chief Executive Officer provides a monthly Executive Report to the Board, highlighting Chapter performance and risk, enabling governance and decision making by the Board. The term of the Chief Executive Officer shall be the same as elected Officers and Directors. The Executive Officer provides direction and information to the Board as it carries out its governance functions.

Section 9

The following Board Officer roles shall be elected by the Chapter Membership at an Annual General Meeting, or other means in accordance with the Article VI:

- President
- Secretary
- Treasurer
- any other vacant board positions.

Section 10

The Board shall exercise all powers of the Chapter, except as specifically prohibited by these bylaws, the PMI Bylaws and policies, its Charter with PMI, and the laws of the jurisdiction in which the organization is incorporated/registered. The Board shall be authorized to adopt and publish such policies, procedures and rules as may be necessary and consistent with these bylaws and PMI Bylaws and policies, and to exercise authority over all Chapter business and funds.

Section 11

The Board shall meet at the call of the President, or at the written request of three (3) members of the Board. A quorum shall consist of no less than one-half of the voting membership of the Board at any given time. Each voting member in-attendance shall be entitled to one (1) vote. At its discretion, the Board may conduct its business by teleconference, email or other legally acceptable means. Meetings shall be conducted in accordance with parliamentary procedures determined by the Board.

Section 12

The Board of Directors may declare an officer or Director at Large position to be vacant where an officer or Director at Large ceases to be a member in good standing of PMI or of the Chapter by reason of non-payment of dues, or where the officer or Director at Large fails to attend two (2) consecutive Board meetings, without prior apology/notice.

Section 13

An Officer or Director may resign by submitting a minimum of one (1) month written notice to the President or Secretary. Unless another time is specified in the notice or determined by the Board, the resignation shall be effective upon completion of the notice period. A Board officer may not resign from one position on the Board to run for another position on the Board.

Section 14

An Officer or Director at Large may be removed from office for just cause in connection with the affairs of the organization, including for unethical practices, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the members present and in person at an official meeting of the membership, or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board.

Section 15

If any Officer or Director at Large position (including the President) becomes vacant, the Board may appoint a successor to fill the office for the unexpired portion of the term for the vacant position. The Board may call for a special election by the chapter's membership to fill the vacant position as required.

Section 16

The Board shall oversee the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer who shall, upon appointment, form an Executive Leadership Team to oversee the operational management of the Chapter. The Treasurer and Secretary will be standing members of the Executive Leadership Team to ensure robust and formal management of Chapter affairs. The Chief Executive Officer shall appoint, at their discretion, Associate Directors to oversee key Chapter functions which include, but are not limited to:

- Professional Development
- Events
- Industry Engagement

- Marketing and Communications
- Volunteers

Associate Directors will be permitted to attend Board meetings at the discretion of the Board. On occasion, Associate Directors may be requested to excuse themselves from Board proceedings where matters of a sensitive nature are to be discussed. Associate Directors will not have a voting right at Board meetings but are encouraged to contribute to the discussion at the discretion of the Chair of the Board.

Section 17

The Board may, at its' discretion, solicit external specialist advice to support the strategic direction and operational management of the Chapter.

Article VI Chapter Nominations and Elections

Section 1

The nomination and election of officers and directors shall be conducted annually in accordance with the requirements contained in these Bylaws, including Article IV, Section 1 and Article V, Section 2, and this Article VI.

Section 2

All voting members in good standing of the Chapter shall have the right to vote in the election. Discrimination in election and nomination procedures based on race, color, creed, gender, age, marital status, national origin, religion, physical or mental disability, or unlawful purpose is prohibited.

Section 3

Candidates who are elected shall take office for the elected term on the first day of the month following their election and shall hold office for the duration of their terms or until their successors have been elected and qualified.

Section 4

A Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate containing nominees for a Board position and shall determine the eligibility and willingness of each nominee to stand for election. Candidates for Board positions may also be nominated by petition process established by the Nominating Committee or the Board. Elections shall be conducted (a) during the annual meeting of the membership; or (b) by mail ballot to all voting members in good standing; or (c) by electronic vote in compliance with the legal jurisdiction. Voting by proxy is not allowed. The candidate who receives a majority of votes cast for each office shall be elected. Ballots shall be counted by the Nominating Committee or by tellers designated by the Board.

Section 5

No current member of the Nominating Committee shall be included in the slate of nominees prepared by the Committee.

Section 6

In accordance with PMI policies, practices, procedures, rules and directives, no funds or resources of PMI or the Chapter may be used to support the election of any candidate or group of candidates for PMI, Chapter, or public office. No other type of organized electioneering, communications, fund-raising or other organized activity on behalf of a candidate shall be permitted. The Chapter Nominating Committee, or other applicable body designated by the Chapter, will be the sole distributor(s) of all election materials for Chapter elected positions.

Article VII Nominations Committee

Section 1

The President, with the approval of the Board by majority, shall appoint a Nominating Committee consisting of at least three (3) members of the Chapter in good financial standing. The Immediate Past President shall also be invited to act as Board Liaison within the Nominations Committee.

Section 2

The Nominating Committee shall be chaired by a Member in good standing, appointed by the President.

Section 3

Each nominee seeking election to the Board for the roles of President, Secretary and Treasurer, must be a Chapter member in good standing for two previous consecutive years. Nominees for the role(s) of Director at Large are not required to be a Chapter member, however if elected, must become a Chapter member within 2 weeks of election.

Section 4

A candidate may withdraw their nomination by notifying the Nominating Committee in writing.

Section 5

The election of the Board shall occur within five months of the fiscal year completion as identified in Article IX.

Section 6

The Nominating Committee shall present its final candidate recommendations to the Chapter membership no less than fourteen (14) days prior to the election and prepare an election ballot as required.

Article VIII Chapter Committees

Section 1

The Board may authorize the establishment of standing or temporary committees to advance the purposes of the organization. The Board shall establish a charter for each committee, which defines its purpose, authority, and outcomes. Committees are responsible to the Board. Committee members shall be appointed from the membership of the organization. The Chapter officers and/or Directors can serve on the Chapter Committees unless it specifically is restricted by the Bylaws.

Section 2

All committee members and a chairperson for each committee shall be appointed by the President with the approval of the Board.

Article IX Chapter Finance

Section 1

The fiscal year of the Chapter shall be from 1 January to 31 December.

Section 2

The Chapter annual membership dues shall be set by the Chapter's Board and communicated to PMI in accordance with policies and procedures established by PMI.

Section 3

The Chapter Board shall establish policies and procedures to govern the management of its finances and shall submit required tax filings to appropriate government authorities.

Section 4

All dues' billings, dues collections and dues disbursements shall be performed by PMI.

Article X Meetings of the Membership

Section 1

An annual meeting of the membership shall be held at a date and location to be determined by the Board but shall be no later than five (5) months after the end of the financial year.

Section 2

Notice of all annual meetings shall be sent by the Board to all members at least 14 days in advance of the meeting. The notice shall set out when and where the meeting will be held and the particulars of the order of business to be transacted at the meeting. Action at such meetings shall be limited to those agenda items contained in the notice of the meeting. Where a special resolution is to be proposed, then a period of 21 days' notice shall be provided.

Section 3

Special general meetings of the membership may be called by the President; by a majority of the Board; or by petition of five percent (5%) of the voting membership directed to the President.

Section 4

Upon a requisition in writing of not less than 5% of the total number of members of the association, the Board shall, within one month of the receipt of the requisition, convene a special general meeting for the purpose specified in the requisition. If a special general meeting is not convened within one month, the requesting members, or at least 50% of their number, may convene a special general meeting. Such a meeting shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as practical as a meeting convened by the Board. The Board shall ensure that the requesting members are supplied, free of charge, with particulars of the members entitled to receive a notice of meeting. Members details are sensitive and, as such, requesting members must sign PMIs confidentiality and records compliance agreement before details are supplied. The reasonable expenses of convening and conducting such a meeting shall be borne by the Chapter.

Section 5

Notice of all special meetings shall be sent, by the Board, to membership 14 days in advance of the meeting to allow membership the opportunity to participate in such special meetings. The notice should indicate the time and place of the meeting and include the proposed agenda. Action at such meetings shall be limited to those agenda items contained in the notice of the meeting.

Section 6

Quorums at all annual and special meetings of the Chapter shall be five percent (5%) of the voting membership in good standing, present and in person. Voting by proxy is not allowed.

Section 7

If within 30 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting a quorum of members is not present, a meeting convened upon the requisition of members shall lapse. In any other case, the meeting shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place and if at such a adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within 30 minutes of the time appointed for the meeting the members present shall form a quorum.

Section 8

All meetings shall be conducted according to parliamentary procedures determined by the Board.

Section 9

Where a general meeting requires a vote of the members present, the meeting Chair shall have the casting vote in the event of a tie in the votes.

Article XI Inurement and Conflict of Interest

Section 1

No member of the Chapter shall receive any pecuniary gain, benefit, or profit, incidental or otherwise, from the activities, financial accounts, and resources of the Chapter, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws.

Section 2

No officer, director, appointed committee member or authorized representative of the Chapter shall receive any compensation, or other tangible or financial benefit for service on the Board. However, the Board may authorize payment by the Chapter of actual and reasonable expenses incurred by an officer, director, committee member or authorized representative regarding attendance at Board meetings and other approved activities.

Section 3

The Chapter may engage in contracts or transactions with members, elected officers or directors of the Board, appointed committee members or authorized representatives of Chapter and any corporation, partnership, association or other organization in which one or more of Chapter's directors, officers, appointed committee members or authorized representatives are: directors or officers, have a financial interest in, or are employed by the other organization, provided the following conditions are met:

- A. the facts regarding the relationship or interest as they relate to the contract or transaction are disclosed to the board of directors prior to commencement of any such contract or transaction.
- B. the board in good faith authorizes the contract or transaction by a majority vote of the directors who do not have an interest in the transaction or contract.
- C. the contract or transaction is fair to Chapter and complies with the laws and regulations of the applicable jurisdiction in which Chapter is incorporated or registered at the time the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified by the board of directors.

Section 4

All officers, directors, appointed committee members and authorized representatives of the Chapter shall act in an independent manner consistent with their obligations to the Chapter and applicable law, regardless of any other affiliations, memberships, or positions.

Section 5

All officers, directors, appointed committee members and authorized representatives shall disclose any interest or affiliation they may have with any entity or individual with which Chapter has entered, or may enter, into contracts, agreements, or any other business transaction, and shall refrain from voting on, or influencing the consideration of, such matters.

Article XII Indemnity

Section 1

In the event that any person who is or was an officer, director, committee member, or authorized representative of the Chapter, acting in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Chapter, has been made party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative action or proceeding (other than an action or proceeding by or in the right of the corporation), such representative may be indemnified against reasonable expenses and liabilities, including attorney fees, actually and reasonably incurred, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with such action or proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by the jurisdiction in which the organization is incorporated. Where the representative has been successful in defending the action, indemnification is mandatory.

Section 2

Unless ordered by a court, discretionary indemnification of any representative shall be approved and granted only when consistent with the requirements of applicable law, and upon a determination that indemnification of the representative is proper in the circumstances because the representative has met the applicable standard of conduct required by law and in these bylaws.

Section 3

To the extent permitted by applicable law, the Chapter may purchase and maintain liability insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, agent, or authorized representative of the Chapter, or is or was serving at the request of the Chapter as a director, officer, employee, trustee, agent or representative of another corporation, domestic or foreign, non-profit or for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

Article XIII Amendments

Section 1

These bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting membership in good standing voting by electronic ballot; or by two-thirds (2/3) vote of membership present and voting at an annual meeting of the Chapter duly called and regularly held; or by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the voting membership in good standing voting by mail ballot returned within thirty (30) days of the date by which members can reasonably be presumed to have received the ballot. Notice of proposed changes shall be sent in writing to the membership at least thirty (30) days before such meeting or vote.

Section 2

Amendments may be proposed by the Board on its own initiative, or upon petition by five percent (5%) of the voting members in good standing addressed to the Board. All such proposed amendments shall be presented by the Board with or without recommendation.

Section 3

All amendments must be consistent with PMI's Bylaws and the policies, procedures, rules, and directives established by the PMI Board of Directors, as well as with the Chapter's Charter with PMI.

Article XIV Dissolution

Section 1

If the Chapter or its governing officers failed to act according to these bylaws, its policies, or all PMI® policies, procedures, and rules outlined in the charter agreement, PMI® has a right to revoke the Chapter Charter and require the chapter to seek dissolution.

Section 2

In the event the Chapter failed to deliver value to its members as outlined in Chapter's business plan and without mitigated circumstance, the Chapter acknowledges that PMI® has a right to revoke the Chapter Charter and require the Chapter to seek dissolution.

Section 3

In the event the Chapter is considering dissolving, the Chapter's members of the Board of Director must notify PMI® in writing and follow the Chapter dissolution procedure as defined in PMI's policy.

Section 4

Should the Chapter dissolve for any reason, its assets shall be dispersed to an organization designated by the voting membership after the payment of just, reasonable, and supported debts, consistent with applicable legal requirements.

Section 5

Unless superseded by law, dissolution of the Chapter entity must be approved by a majority of the members voting on the motion to dissolve.
